The fourth of the series of Wednesday noon meetings at the Young Men's Christian Association was held at 12:30 o'clock today in Cooke hall.
Rev. Robert E. Smith spoke upon the subject, "Does It Matter What a Man Believes?" There was a large number of men present.

Tenders for supplies for the Territorial board of health for the next six months were opened and passed upon by that body at a special meeting yesterday afternoon. The Molokai Ranch was the lowest bidder on beef, the Kalihii poi factory the lowest for Pa-lai and Hoffschlaeger & Co., the highest for the purchase of hides from the board of health. The bids for supplying groceries and other merchandise were divided among a large number of city merchants.

BUSINESS ITEMS

One million one hundred thousand cans is the estimate of this year's pineapple pack given by James D.
Pope.

Shipping first is the date of the sale of the colonial Hotel property, formerly the town residence of the late James Campbell. The Motion picture company will conduct the sale. An upset price of $25,000 has been set.

Hawaiian stocks closed as follows in San Francisco: Hawaiian Commercial, 32 bid; Hawaiian Sugar, 34 bid; inson, 15 bid; Kilauea, 12 bid; Ohorua, 15 1/2 bid; Pauahua, 17 1/2 bid; Union, 3 1/2 bid.

Stocks were decidedly erratic on the New York stock exchange yesterday, although there was an absence of excitement. London selling caused prices to fall in the morning, rallying toward noon to about Monday's closing prices. In the afternoon the recovery was neutralized and the market closed heavy.

An inquiry has been made of the Bishop estate looking to the acquisition of the Hotel street end of the grounds opposite the Young Hotel for a building site. No action has yet been taken by the trustees of the estate on the offer for the King street end of the premises. The early settlement of the federal building site litigation may hasten matters.

Instructions were cabled to Raymond C. Brown in London yesterday, accompanied by $20,000 as first payment, to charter the steamship Willcosen at $135,000 to bring 1600 Portuguese immigrants. It was the Willcosen that was mentioned in the offer laid before the board of immigration at its meeting last week, but the board requested that the name be not published then. The Willcosen was here before with European immigrants, arriving in such bad condition as to incur a penalty of $10,000.

WALTER DUISENBERG BACK.

Walter Duisenberg returned home in the Lurline this morning, after an absence of over three months in San Francisco undergoing treatment for his eyes, injured by the explosion of a sodawater bottle in August. He returns in splendid health, but the sight of his right eye is permanently lost.

All that is visible to reveal the deprivation, and this only upon close inspection, is reduced size of the pupil in the slightest eye. An artificial eye is therefore unnecessary. Mr. Duisenberg was at the office of Duisenberg Brothers, Merchant street, soon after arrival, receiving the welcome of his many friends who were delighted to find him not only in the best of health but cheerful despite his misfortune.

SOMETHING DEPENDABLE.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never disappoints those who use it for obstinate coughs, colds and irritations of the throat and lungs. It stands unrivalled as a remedy for all throat and lung diseases. For sale by all dealers.
